WEDDED A NORTH CAROLINIAN. Miss Louise Anthony Married Yesterday to Mr. C. W. Parker.

The beautiful little Church of the Covenant, in Harrison street near Park avenue, was full of people at 6 o'clock last evening.

They came to see the marriage of Miss Louise Anthony, daughter of Mrs. A. E. Anthony, of 1220 Floyd averue, to Mr. C. W. Parker, of Charlotte, N. C.

The young gentlemen who acted as ushers were faultlessly arrayed in evening dress, with boutonieres of roses.

They were Messrs. Joseph F. White, Le-roy D. Grant, Edward C. Skinner, Charles Lefew, Walter Jones and Mitchell Hilton. Mr. Robert Harlowe was at the organ, and played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin as the party entered, and Men-delssohn's Wedding March as they went

There were plano lamps of pink and vellow and a bower of ferns and palms in the place of the pulpit, and the paster of the church, Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, performed the ceremony in an impressive manner.

The groom entered the church with his best man, Mr. Dewitt Allen, of Charlotte,

The bride, a very pretty woman, was radiant in a well-fitting traveling suit of dark garnet, hat and gloves to match, and her bouquet was one of Marechal Nell roses. She entered with her maid of honor, Mis Nellie Thompson, who was dressed in tan broadcloth and passementerie trimmings, hat and gloves to match. She carried a bouquet of Marechal Neil

Mr. and Mrs. Parker drove to the Union station to take the 7:05 train for a Northern trip. They will return to their future home, Charlotte, N. C., where Mr. Parker is the manager of a large furniture manufacturing house.

The presents were numerous and beauti-

A special to The Times from Memphis, Tenn., last night said: Mr. Archibald W. Patterson, of Richmond, Va., and Miss Elizabeth Dillard, of this city, were married this afternoon.

The ceremony took place at 4 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's father, Captain J. E. Dillard, 330 Jefferson street. The Rev. R. J. Willingham, of the First Baptist church, was the officiating min-

Music was given by a string orchestra. The house was beautifully decorated with palms, white and yellow roses and chrysanthemums.

The bride was handsomely gowned in white corded silk, with trimmings of duchess lace. She carried a bouquet of white Roman hyacinths. attired in lemon yellow silks, carrying bouquets of red roses. The wedding gifts were very numerous and beautiful. Among them were round trip railway tickets to Florida. These were presented Mr. and Mrs. Patterson by a friend of the bride, a prominent railroad official. The couple left for Jacksonville and St.

Augustine after the ceremony, and a reception at the late home of the bride.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Courtney, of Richmond, were also in attendance at the wedding, which was one of the most brilliant events ever seen in the city of

The ushers were: Messrs, Floyd V. Archer (best man), P. C. Carden, Dudley P. Edwards and Roland L. Reeves. The presents were beautiful, among them being an artistic lamp, the gift of Mr. Davies' business associates. The large number of gifts received testified to the high esteem in which the couple is held by many friends. After the ceremony there was a reception at the happy couple's future home, No. 2208 Church Hill avenue. Only the intimate friends and relatives were present, and the occasion was one full of

Taliaferro_Triplett. Mr. P. P. Taliaferro, assistant City Engineer of Richmond, was married to Miss Carrie Triplett, of Jeffersonton, Culpeper, Va., yesterday. The wedding took place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the Baptist church, of Jeffersonton. The church was crowded with friends of the couple. Mr. Randolph Watkins, of Richmond, was the best man.

Mrs. Taliaferro is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. P. Triplett, and as a student at the Baptist Female Institute, and visitor to Richmond, has a large acquintance here.

Mr. and Mrs. Taliaferro left for a trip to New York and Niagara Falls, to return to Richmond, their future home.

Mr. Webb's Funeral.

The remains of Mr. William W. Webb were brought from the residence of Mr. Stanhope Gregory, in Amelia county, yesterday morning, to his late residence, No. 901 east Clay street, in this city, and the funeral will take place from Cen-tenary Methodist Episcopal church at 11 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Webb died very suddenly Monday night at the residence of Mr. Stanhope Gregory, in Amelia county, where he was While sitting around the fire after supper with his host and friends apparently in good health and spirits, he suddenly complained of a pain about his heart and expired in a few minutes. Judge D. M. Bernard, his old law partner, came over yesterday from Petersburg, and though compelled to return account of court engagements, he will be over to the funeral to-day. Mrs. Dr. Gee, his married daughter, with her husband, arrived yesterday from North Carolina.

The Grave-Yard Committee.

The Committee on Cemeteries held its regular meeting last evening. Chairman Grimes and Messrs. Carneal, Garber, Vaughan, Joseph W. Carter, R. T. Davis and Bowden were present.

There was a disagreement in the Chesterfield board of supervisors on Monday as to the payment of the cost of the new jatl, some $2,800.

The man representing the builders of the jail was on hand for his money. Somebody representing another builder was also there, and claiming that the work was not done well, protested against the payment.

He alleged that weak places in the building were hidden with paint and putty.

special committee to examine into the matter was appointed. Payment of the $2,800 was stopped for the present. The Chesterfield Circuit Court adjourned for the term Tuesday, after having been in session twelve days.

Forty chancery decrees were entered and considerable common law business was disposed of Two liquor appeal cases from the county court were heard and the argument upon them consumed three days. The court reserved decision in both cases until the special term, which will be held in about three weeks from now. Four or five hotly contested chancery cases were also argued and the papers taken by the judge, who will render a decision at the special term.

The case of Johnston vs. the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad Company for the first later. for $10,000 was postponed until the February term.

The case of Bell and Flanagan vs. the Farmville and Powhatan Railroad Company, involving some sixty or seventy thousand dollars of bonds, was heard upon a motion to file an amended in the case, and then by consent of the parties interested it was removed to the Cir-cuit Court of Petersburg for further pro-ce-clings. This was done to expedite matters, as the case in any event will go to the supreme court. Messrs. William Flanagan, of Powhatan, and E. P. Soldier's Home Lodge.

Detachments of Sidney and Star of Hope visited Soldiers' Home Lodge Tuesday night, and were highly entertained. Chief Templar W. W. Caldwell invited Star of Hope to occupy the chair.

Mr. R. G. Carrington delivered the address of welcome, which was responded to by Mr. Joseph H. Shepherd. A nice programme was rendered, consisting of songs, solos, duets, recitations and addresses by Messrs. Edmund Williams and R. C. Trayler. The old soldiers have a good lodge and deserve great credit for the interest shown, and the way they keep it up.

Owing to the extreme illness of Mr. Henry C. Davis, chief Tempiar of Sidney, the entertainment by that lodge at Belvidere Friday night has been postponed

The Boundary Line.

Senator James N. Stubbs, of Gloucester, has been in the city for the last two days. He has been busy in getting up some of the reports, which will be submitted to the special committee of the Legislature which is to meet in Washington next week to confer with a similar committee of Maryland, to agree, if possible, on a settlement of the existing differences in re-gard to the boundary line and the fishing question.

The Virginia committee will meet at the Metropolitan Hotel, in Washington, next Tuesday evening, December 6th, while the Maryland committee will make their headquarters at the Ebbitt House.

Fire-Proof Roofs.

The Committee on Fire Department held its regular meeting in the Council chamber last evening. Chairman Carneal and Messrs. Joseph W. Carter, Garber, R. T. Davis, W. L. White and Mitchell were present.

White offered a resolution, which was adopted, providing that hereafter all buildings to be erected within the city limits shall have roofs of slate, tiling. tin or other metal material. The usual number of building permits were considered, and their granting will be recommended to the Council.

H. M. MOSES COMPANY, A DASH FOR LIBERTY.

Two Prisoners at the Penitentiary Made an Attempt to Escape.

Two convicts at the penitentiary made a bold attempt to escape yesterday morn-

Frank Cole, a notorious burglar, and Oscar Dawson, a horse thief, were the men who made the dash for liberty. Cole, some three months ago, in com pany with one or two other men, at-tempted to cut through the house ad-joining F. D. Johnson's jewelry store in Lynchburg. Cole began his work above a hardware store which adjoined the jewelry place. He began cutting through the brick walls, so as to gain an entrance to Johnson's place, and while at work was heard by some one who lodged over jeweiry store. The tenant immedi-y gave word to the police, and the ardware house was surrounded by po-

The two houses were searched during the night, but Cole could not be found. Early the next morning he was found in the cellar.

He was immediately tried, convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for nine While on the train to prison he jumped from a coach and broke one his legs. He has consequently been in the hospital ever since his incarceration. Dawson was in the same room on the

The two men yesterday morning cut hole in the roof of the building, and thus reached the garret that extends around the entire roof. After getting into the garret they cut a second hole in the roof of the main building on the First-street front. Soon after midnight a noise was heard by the guards and the alarm was given.

The hospital rooms were searched, and Dawson, who had not gotten out of the building, was caught and carried back to a cell. Cole was not found, however. Superintendent Lynn was sent for, and, although several of the guards were of the opinion that Cole had escaped, Mr. Lynn was not of that opinion. He ordered a strict that opinion.

watch to be kept. The vigilance of the guard was at last ewarded. Yesterday morning, at 5 clock, Cole, having made a rope of bedrewarded. ding, again attempted to descend the outer wall. The guard halled him, and pointing his double-barrel shot-gun, warn-ed him that if he attempted to escape he would shoot him. Cole immediately tum-bled to the earth in a heap, and it was soon discovered that he had received in-juries about the back, head and face. He was carried back to the hospital, and his wounds, together with his leg, which is not yet healed, will keep him in the hospital for quite a long time.

He remained concealed on the prison roof this morning from soon after midnight until 5 o'clock, when he made the second attempt.

Superintendent Lynn complimented the guards upon their vigilance, and certified both cases to the City Circuit Court, Consequently Cole and Dawson will be tried and receive additional sentence for their attempt to escape.
